Jesus said, It's time my child, for you to pick a Mother
So I looked down on earth from one to the other
That's the one, Jesus, that woman there
The one with the smile none other can compare
I know I will love her I'm excited that she'll be mine
I know she will comfort me all of the time
When will it be time for us to meet
Not too much longer, I promise, he said
She'll hold you, kiss you and rock you to sleep I know we will make each other complete

I see all her beauty how can I compare
You'll be just like her, Jesus said
Same smile, same face, same color of hair
I feel it in my heart
I'll make her special, he said
I'll make her like no other She'll be a wonderful Mother

One more thing Jesus, before you go
How will I find her, how will I know
Will she know me, Jesus
Will she know that I'm hers

And Jesus said.....

You will be wrapped in
"Lavender and Lace"
You will know her
By "God's Amazing Grace"

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!!
